LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. Lusher will preach in the M. E. Church on Sunday evening next.

—W. E. Lathy, Esq., and lady, of Erie, are at present in town, on a visit to their friends.

—The turkeys and geese so numerous in back yards, begin to read their fate in the unusual abundance of feed these days.

—The sheriff is kept on the jump these "ripping hard times," and there dozent seem to be any probability of a let-up soon.

—This issue is delayed on account of the New Constitution, which we herewith present. Next week we shall be out on time as usual.

—That yoke of oxen from the hill looked supremely sorrowful after they reached town; having come sixteen miles and things so dull.

—Persons with colic will find relief by riding over our street early in the morning in a springless wagon. Nothing is so soothingly smooth.

—Blind horses may be made useful by shooting them, and trying out their fat for boof grease this winter. Their hoofs may be sold to make into combs.

—To-day we present still another change in the O. C. & A. R. Ry. time table. Our readers should read it rapidly, or another change may take place before they have become familiar with this one.

—Robert Guyton, an old hunter of these regions, has slain from fifteen to twenty deers this fall already, and he isn't rightly started yet. We hope to be able to present the sum total of his hunting after the season expires.

—Tionesta township has been doing the handsome thing by the road just over the railroad track, throwing some seventy loads of stone and earth into the mudholes which have heretofore made that road both difficult and dangerous.

—J. P. Savage, one of the aborigines of Tionesta, who for some years has been making his home in Louisville, is at present in town on a visit.
 He proposes to pursue the panting deer and do a large amount of hunting while he is here.

—Robinson & Bonner with their characteristic foresight are erecting a shed 13x40 in the rear of their store for the purpose of sheltering the teams and vehicles of their customers when they come to town. Feed-troughs will be placed in position, and everything conveniently arranged.

—All our readers should carefully peruse the supplement herewith presented. The New Constitution, and a rush of legal advertising takes up so much of our space that we find this the only way to give all our advertisers a chance. Look it over and you will probably save money.

—I stood on the bridge at midnight, and watched the dark waters roll; and was thinking that life is a river, on which floateth the poor human soul, when a voice came clear through the darkness—"Just give me your ten pennies toll." I gave him four postage stamps and walked thoughtfully homeward.

—Among the many preeminently peculiar characteristics of this lovely rural district, is the custom of every man being his own street lamp. There is a talk among the councilmen, of hiring small boys of good education, to serve out imitation day-light with lanterns on corners. They wish to pay them in county orders. It is feared the scheme will not succeed.

—Next week, in addition to what we already have in print, we have to publish the Election Proclamation, for a vote on the new constitution.

—In the Canada lumber regions the wages of the lumbermen have been cut down $5 to $7 per month. The wages in this region, we believe have suffered a small reduction.

—Coal is coming in very slowly now, owing, we suppose, to the bad state of the roads. We will take a couple of loads if some of our customers will bring them in soon.

—Sam. Young, the veteran dead beat of the lower oil region is sending out begging circulars, offering his du-bill for the money if he receives any.
 If any editor except Sam. would con-descend to such tricks, his reputation and business would be forever ruined.

—Peter Fitzgerald, a practical printer, who learned his trade in Clarion, has recently purchased an interest in the Jacksonian of that place. Here's hoping that he may have good luck with his purchase, and may not follow in the footsteps of his illustrious predecessor.

—Hogan and Allen, the bruisers met at some point near Omaha on Tuesday last. Three rounds were fought, Hogan being allowed first blood and first knock-down. During the third round Hogan's friends claimed a "foul" and rushed into the ring with drawn revolvers, creating a row and breaking up the fight. The referree declares the fight a draw.

—In many places throughout this city the holes in the side walks, deep and dark, do gape like hungry mouths for small pieces of shin, or perhaps, a whole shoulder. Those in any way connected with these horrid and dangerous caverns, can offer up thanks for peace and plenty with quieter con-sciences and greater eclat, by seeing them closed.

—Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, the well known proprietor of Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and other patent medicines, was up at Hickory last week, visiting and hunting with C. L. Hanna, of that place. We had the pleasure of meeting the Dr. and find him a gentleman of ability and education.
 With his fine dogs, which he brought with him, he made great havoc among the partridges of Hickory.

—A friend of ours, and a friend of his, went out hunting during the late snow, and struck a track early in the morning and followed it till dew eve, and came upon a—sheep! They were perfectly confident they were on the track of a deer until they came upon that sheep in the very act of making those same deer-tracks. They have proven deer tracks to those chaps since.

—T. V. West, the bridge man, has finished work on the bridge at Irvine-ton and next goes to Niles, Ohio, to superintend the erection of a bridge there. After that, we suppose, he will come back and put up the Lacytown bridge, the stone work of which, we understand, is nearly finished. The iron for said bridge is now at the depot, awaiting transportation to its resting place.

—The river bridge is now in the hands of Hunter, the proprietor thereof. Geo. Scott, the former ferryman, now takes his stand in the little house at the west end of the bridge, and collects toll without any compunctions of conscience. Mr. Breckenridge the contractor, has left town we believe.
 During his stay among us he has gained many friends, and won the respect of all. Should he ever be called to this place in the future, he will be cordially welcomed.

—Several coal houses in town are infested with thieves, who carry the same away in whatever quantities they can secure. We would advise them to change their tactics, or they may possibly fetch up in a place where the State will pay for their fuel for some time to come. Furthermore, we would say, that some of the thieves are "spotted," and will surely be apprehended if they keep on. So, as a matter of safety to themselves, we would recommend them to buy their coal.

The Proposed Constitution.

In this issue we present the proposed Constitution of the State, which, if adopted, takes the place of that now in force. It is not a political eman-ation; having been framed by good men of both parties, with a view to meet the wants of the whole people.
 We wish every one of our readers to carefully peruse the document, and from his own opinion on it, unaided and unbiassed by any suggestions or hints of ours. It is a notorious fact, that under the workings of the old constitution our Legislature has had powers, which in their abuse, have made that body almost totally corrupt.
 Lobbyists have passed whatever bills their interests, or those of their employers suggested, while bills of general utility were held in the background. Members have been bought and sold by brokers in the persons of lobbyists. We do not pretend to say that even the majority of our legislators were so worked upon, but between those who honestly differed on any subject, there was generally a balance of power in the hands of those who bought legislation with money or its equivalent. This then is sought to be remedied. Several other points, too numerous for mention in a short article, cry aloud for a new constitution by which we are to be governed. For these reasons was the constitutional convention called. We present the result of their labors. The question to be decided, is: Does this document meet the wants of the whole people of this Commonwealth? Is it so framed as to keep honest men to the front, and foil villainy in high and in low places? If your judgement says yes, vote the ticket "For the New Constitution." If not, vote the ticket "Against the New Constitution." The election is to be held on the third Tuesday of December, at the usual places of holding general elections.
 Let the full vote of this county be polled at that time.

—On account of the seizure of the ship Virginia by the Spaniards, while sailing under the American flag, and the subsequent execution of upward of one hundred men, part of whom were Americans, the papers throughout the length and breadth of the land are clamoring for war with Spain.
 The vessel was captured in neutral waters. It is said that there were munitions of war, and recruits for the Cuban army on board the Virginia, but if this were so, it would not justify the wholesale butchery indulged in by the Spaniards. Such barbarism was heretofore supposed to belong entirely to the dark ages, and the revolting hideousness of this slaughter of helpless captives is such as to draw down upon the perpetrators and the powers they serve, the just condemnation of all civilized nations. The Government is busily engaged in collecting from all available sources further information regarding the capture of the Virginia and the particulars of the revolving executions which followed.
 When Congress meets, which will be in a short time, the question will undoubtedly be taken up at once, and settled either for peace or war. Meanwhile our navy is being prepared for any emergency that may arise, and should there be a declaration of war, an army of 100,000 can be raised in two weeks' time. The whole country will await future developments with anxiety.

—Monday saw the last issue of the Petroleum Centre Record as a daily.
 The reason for its shutting down is the hard times, low price of oil, &c. Mr.
 Wicker will issue a weekly so long as he stays there if he receives proper support. Among others, we are sorry to miss the Record from our exchange list, having always been sure of finding something in its columns worth reading. Should oil come up to a living price, and Petroleum Centre once more take her place among the thriving towns of the oil regions, the Record will again illumine and enlighten the country at large.

—A full regiment of one thousand men was tendered to the President by Titusville on Tuesday last. They want to go over and take Cuba. If there is any show for that kind of business, Forest county will furnish her quota.

—Hobart Stow, for several years a citizen of this county, who has, for a few months been engaged in the oil business near Edenburg, Clarion Co., recently struck a 60-bbl well, and has another well nearly down, on the same territory. He with a partner has a lease of three hundred acres, on which their wells are situated, and, after this last one is down, they propose to hold up for better times, having a decided sure thing when those times do come.
 All Hobe's old friends and acquaintances will be rejoiced to hear of his good fortune.

SALLY LUXE.—Take three pints of flour, one and a half measures of Banner Baking Powder, two teaspoonfuls

PROCLAMATION.
 WHEREAS, The Honorable W. P. Jenks, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas and Quarter Sessions in and for the county of Forest, has issued his precept for holding a Court of Common Pleas Quarter Sessions, &c., at Tionesta, for the County of Forest, to commence on the fourth Monday of Dec., next, being the 29th day of Dec. 1873. Notice is therefore given to the Coroners, Justices of the Peace and Constables of said county, that they be then and there in their proper persons at ten o'clock, A. M., of said day, with their records, inquisitions, examinations, and other remembrances, to do those things which to their offices appertain to be done, and to those who bound in recognizances to prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in the jail
